

AFFIDAVIT OF FACT

I, Dutch Earl Thompson,(hereinafter, "affiant") do hereby affirm and declare that the following facts are true, correct and complete to the best of the affiants knowledge and belief, and

On the date of October 3, 2014 at approximately 3:15 pm EST, as affiant was going home on affiants bicycle. The oncoming traffic was stopping for the red traffic signal that affiant had just passed, and as the oncoming traffic were stopped in the far lane, and had enough time and space to turn left onto James Ashbury, affiant heard the State Trooper immediately behind affiant with lights flashing and using the blast horn. Affiant thought the Trooper was after someone else. Then affiant realized he wanted to stop affiant, but didn't know why, and

After arbitrary arrest, detainment and exile:

Trooper Azbill claimed "I cut through moving traffic and didn't see your signal. Trooper Azbill further claimed that all the cars had to slam on their brakes." Affiant didn't see anyone 'slamming on their brakes' because the other cars had already come to a complete stop, or were still far back enough that affiant was safe in crossing over, and

Trooper Azbill approached affiant on a bicycle and asked "Do you have any ID? Any legal form of ID? To this, affiant replied that affiant did in fact. Trooper Azbill asked affiant to show affiants ID to him, and affiant handed affiant's The United States of America, 1781 Confederation Party Member card. Trooper Azbill looks at it, turns it to look at the back and says to affiant "you're one of them sovereign citizens, aren't you?" To which affiant replied, "No", and

At this time, affiant knew that this was not a typical traffic stop, especially being on a bike, but actually an attempted murder plot by a Metro State Criminal Investigator named Trooper Azbill. Trooper Azbill then went to his vehicle to run the card and when Trooper Azbill returned to the where affiant was waiting, Trooper Azbill mockingly stated "anyone can download this shit off the internet and print it out", and

Trooper Azbill then asked affiant if affiant had a birthday attempting to recruit the affiant into a Metro private membership association, and affiant replied that that was private information, and Trooper Azbill continued to badger affiant about it stating "it was law that I have to provide him with whatever ID information he wanted thereby attempting to force affiant into Trooper Azbill's Metro Private Membership association, and "

Trooper Azbill then asked affiant if affiant had any other valid ID, such as an ODL, which affiant never heard that foreign term used before. Affiant asked Trooper Azbill what that was, and Trooper Azbill said it is an Operator Driver's License, affiant was on a bicycle, and

Trooper Azbill then said that “since you’re not going to cooperate with me, I’m going to show you by how we do it Tennessee Style”, and

About this time Trooper Trey Seymor arrives on the scene, walks up, looks affiant in the face, and claims three times consecutively “I know you, I know you,...I know you!” But, we only met one time before about 9 months ago. Trooper Trey Seymor knew human rights were being violated and further escalated the situation by forcing a religion on affiant by quoting the bible to affiant, and

Trooper Azbill proceeded to physically assault affiant during further detainment process adding assault to an attempted murder, arbitrary arrest, detainment, exile, and other human rights violations yet to be determined, and

The affiant was placed in jail after towing affiants bicycle from 10-3-2014. 3:15 p.m. to 10-04-2014 8 a.m., released with a release citation to show up to a metro administrative hearing to determine the fine for not politically thinking like a religious Metro private association member in accordance with the Constitution of the New States of America, and

Affiant further saith naught,
