STATEMENT

Based on the minutes of the assembly meeting of June 30, 2014, it is hereby agreed that:

1. Edmond Mark Hodges offers peace instead of retaliation against the Spark Police Department and its investigators, details of the peace bond are listed in the MMIN-20140630-ASMBLY document.

2. The withdrawal of Washoe County, Nevada from the prosecution of Edmond Mark Hodges is accepted and acknowledged as a peace bond offer from the Republican and Democratic Party to the Confederation Party.

3. The Confederation Party of The United States of America, also known as these United States accepts this offer and extends a reciprocal offer of peace by withdrawing its international tort claim with the understanding and mutual agreement that the Democratic, Republican and Confederation Parties will abstain from civil or criminal litigation against each other and its members.

4. In light of these developments, the Confederation Party hereby, in good faith, withdraws its international claim of Human Rights Violations against Harry Reid, a member of the Democratic Party.

5: By the withdrawal of the Human Rights Violations against Harry Reid by the assembly of affirmed American Nationals, The Human Rights Tribunal for The United States of America is without choice but to remove the Committee Proclamation from its docket as an act of good faith by the Human Rights Tribunal that it will uphold the Peace Agreement by and between the aforesaid Political Parties.
